

Julian

Jamie Lidell

There's no way I can erase who I've been
There's no way to obscene things I've said
Now you're here and life's a dream
You're the only reality worth understanding
I can't believe
(I can't believe)
The way your face
(Witness your faith)
Is taking over, taking the place
(Is taking over, taking the place)
Of all the dark I always face
Oh, Julian
Yeah, Julian
I don't know what else to say
Except that now happiness is your faith
And before my feet they even hit the floor
I say you're going now, I'm flying
Ah aah oh oh ooh
And rather [?]I can't believe
(I can't believe)
The way your face
(Witness your faith)
Is taking over, taking the place
(Is taking over, taking the place)
Of all the dark I always face
Now my life's worth living
Now my life's worth living
I know this now more than before
Everyone is an open door
I know this now more than before
Everyone is an open doorI can't believe
(I can't believe)
The way your face
(Witness your faith)
Is taking over, taking the place
(Is taking over, taking the place)
Of all the dark I always face
Now my life's worth living
Now my life's worth livingI know this now.
