Memories Expanded

Illdisposed

Grey sky over black town
The rain, has set me wondering from here
Through pain, slowly watching the decayA timeless victim of inner strength
With memories expandedInto the graves my friend
(they are meeting at the graves tonight)
Just decayAnd new rising enters my eyes
Faded passions unlimited:
You're much to grim
But I'll slve you I seng[Note from JP and OW: "Slve you I seng" means "drag you to bed" said (and)
[spelled) in the dreary dialect that is spoken in rhus (well, Stilling, a]
[village outside rhus) where the singer of IllDisposed is from. Grim (which]
[is spoken in Danish) means "ugly"]Now that my love is gone
