Impossible

Daniel Merriweather

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, for your loveI would do anythin', I would say anythin'
I would try anythin' for your love
I would run anywhere, I would go anywhere
I would walk anywhere for your loveOh, girl, I've probably said some corny lines
That I know you've heard a thousandth time
I would do anythin' and everythin'
To respect our love with you, I don't care but I gotta doA thousand armies couldn't stop me, no
'Cause there ain't nothin' impossible
There ain't nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
For your love, your loveNo matter what people say
No matter how far you stay
I'll be the only way for your love
Your loveNo matter how [Incomprehensible] are
No matter how tall the wall
Winter, spring, summer, fall
I'll do it all for your love, your loveAnd I know I've said some corny lies lines
That you probably heard a thousand times
I would do anything and everything
To express my love for you, I don't care what I gotta doA thousand armies couldn't stop me, no
'Cause there ain't nothin' impossible
There ain't nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
For your love, your loveStormy weather couldn't stop me, no
'Cause there ain't nothin' impossible
There ain't nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
For your love, your love, your loveThere is nothin', nothin', nothin'
Nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
Nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
Oh no, nothin', nothin' for your love, your loveThere ain't nothin', nothin', nothin'
Nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
Nothin', nothin', nothin', nothing's impossible
Oh no, nothin', nothin' for your love
Your love, your love, your loveA thousand armies couldn't stop me, no
'Cause there ain't nothin' impossible
There ain't nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible
For your love, your loveStormy weather didn't stop me, no
'Cause there ain't nothin' impossible
There ain't nothin', nothin', nothin' impossible

For your love, your love, your love
