

Amen

Ziggy Marley

verily i say amen amen, verily i say amen, amenwho will profit without shame, those who profit from human pain now let peace be your profit, and let love be your saint to keep the monsters' belly filled, many of my people are killed there is a thirst that must be quenched, for the hearts of the brokenverily i say amen amen, verily i say amen, amenhow much is that black soul, how deep is that black hole don't let money be your master, freedom for the modern slave i'm giving out the thorn with the rose, oh let all the people bemoan it feels like the end of the days, oh my god the devil will pay verily i say i'm building bridges, amen, amen verily i say let noah build the ark, amen, amen verily i say bring the people together, amen, amen verily i say thats what i'm living for, amen, amenby the still waters we lay, in the green grass we play it cost to keep this world afraid, a price that we just cant pay to keep the monsters from the gates we gonna pull together for the suffering to be saved hey we gonna to pull together! verily i say time is now, amen, amen verily i say it has begun, amen, amen verily say and here i come verily i say I'm the first born son, amen, amen
