

Damn I Miss the Game

Cassidy

Damn I miss the, damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Damn I used to love this rap sh
When it was on some gold rope, Kangol hat sh
Now e'ry rapper on some bust that gat sh
Cut that crack sh, that whack sh Public Enemy was on some power to black sh
Rap cats need to get back on that sh
They need to try switchin' they flows
'Cause all of our women ain't  and  And e'ry rapper out got a brick on the stove
And his wrists all froze and he whippin' the Rolls
To hear that, I can listen to Hov'
You bullsh and then you gettin' exposed Damn I miss the, damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Yo what happened to the Game?
All these  rappin' the same and that's lame
Cats hustlin', bustin' they gat
But Kurtis Blow wasn't talkin' 'bout hustlin' crack Now e'rybody on the grind
But Run-D.M.C. never killed nobody in their rhyme
They wasn't on that beef sh
And Melle Mel was the first one to talk that street sh But e'ry since N.W.A. came out
Cats turned gangster and took that same route
To hear that I could listen to 'Pac
You bullsh and I'm wishin' it'd stop Damn I miss the, damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on I don't even listen to rap now
It make my head hurt when I listen to cats now
They sound like they all rhymin' in one route

So take the industry and put 'em all in one group
Since they on the same page
We should be able to boo them dudes offa the same stage
F'real, I still love this rap sh
Even though the A runnin' with that snap sh
Even though the Bay runnin' with that hyphy
When I get on the mic  still won't like me
The head crack, you can listen to me
You bullsh, you ain't sicker than me, uh-huh
Damn I miss the, damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on Damn I miss the, damn I miss the game
Game, when it's gon' come back, come back?
I'm gettin' tired of the dumb rap, dumb rap
Man I done been there and done that, let's move on
Let's move on, let's move on
Let's move on, oh yeah
We gotta move on
