Lie to Me

Closure

Can you even imagine
What I go through
Always stuck on the outside
Waiting for you
You always say we're just friends now
I need to feel closer
Over and over
Lie to me, lie to me
Tell me I'm the one who's everything
'Cause you haven't heard a single thing all night
Lie to me, just lie to me
Take me out of this reality
'Cause I don't think I can take anymore
Lie to me
I know it won't be that easy
But I gotta try
I want you to feel what I'm feeling
It's burning inside
Every moment gets stronger
It's pushing me closer
Over and over
Please don't shut me out
I'm already breaking down
I'm already breaking down
You're with me or without
I'm already breaking down
I'm already breaking down
