

Clap Ur Handz

k-os

We're going to do a song that you've never heard before
Or maybe you have, regardless, I want y'all
To make some noise right now, yeah
This is the joyful rebellion, yeah, check it outYo, ring the alarm, I'm ready to drop the bomb
(Yeah)
I'm not a Muslim but I still say salaam
([Unverified])
This is the calm before the storm but is it righteous?Can I write the songs to make the world sing?
Gee slim with the rude gal [unverified]
Happy to meet you, Miss Argentina
Bob Dobalina, taking my crown to hold me down
I took it back, now he's crying the tears of the clownI slay Goliath with the mic in my hand
But I still make the round on American Bandstand
The foolproof plan but is it calculated?
It can't be violated or even be imitatedIt's highly anticipated like [unverified]
And if it's not true, it's nice to believe
It's the return of an original man to slay the beast of the land.
I'm dumbing it down, so clap ur handz
