

Breathing Underwater (Nai Palm) [Commentary]

Hiatus Kaiyote

The words
In water
The words
In waterMaterial
Slowly unwind
As I leave feathers behind
For your love
For your lover to findWarm hands
Wrapped in blue linen
From Torrington
For your love
For your lover to findWild rose
Jericho sun
And, everyday stone
For your love
For your lover to findAorta
Tied to the artery
With a cute artistry
For your love
For your lover toFind
Breathing, breathing underwater
Bre-Breathing
Breathing underwaterPleasure
Melting your snowflake
Of lace down your face
For your love
For your lover to findI could
Call your demons aside
Soak them in Chamomile
For your love
For your lover
To findBreathing, breathing underwaterI could
Bre-Brea
Breathe underwaterTo find
For your love, for your lover to findBreathing underwaterFor your love
For your lover
Your love
For your love, woah ohFor your love

For your lover
Your love
For your love, woah ohFor your love
For your lover
Your love
For your love, woah ohFor your love
For your lover
Your love
For your love, woah ohFor your love
For your loverFor your love
For your lover
For your love
For your lover
For your love
For your loverI want you to breathe it in
The words
In water
The words
In water
