

Phantomrider

Tokio Hotel

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Gas and blood
Is all I've got
In you I trust
The final exit's passing by The wheels run free under me
It's you I feel
A million sparks are falling down
I turn the wheel around Kiss me goodbye, into the light
Like a phantomrider
I'm dying tonight
So dark and cold
I drive alone
Like a phantomrider
Can't make it all on my own. Promises, I scratched so deep in your empty seat
The sky is turning upside down
I turn the wheel around Kiss me goodbye, into the light
like a Phantomrider
I'm dying tonight
So dark and cold
I drive alone
like a Phantomrider
Can't make it all on my own. I don't know your name but still believe
Now it's time for you and me
Time for you and me
Time for you and me Now I'm here
No more fears
Angel don't you cry
I'll meet you
on the other side Goodbye

into the light
Like a Phantomrider
I'm dying tonight
So dark and cold
I drive alone like a phantomrider
Can make it all on my own.
Hey!
Im here
With you
I am here
leave me alone like a phantomrider always die on thier own
