

April Fool

Pete Townshend & Ronnie Lane

She said I'll see you in the morning, darling
I see you when the kids have gone to school
Oh well, I know tomorrow is your birthday
I know you know that you're an April Fool
We used to roam so freely
It's been so long I take my dreams to bed, now where they belong She said there's dust and cobwebs on your north star
There's no more fussing the campfires in your hair
I see your wheels, they're rustin' in the backyard
I know that we're not going anywhere
We used to roam so freely
It's been so long
I take my dreams to bed now where they belong
