

Friendship Is My Sword

Vorn Doolette

Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness away,
I will wear your love upon my chest,
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness at bay
I will wear your embrace like a vest. A fine vest of Invincibility
Swords, they strike me, but they miss,
And they fall through me like I am a ghost
Stuck in the ground with some disgrace
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness away,
I will wear your love upon my chest,
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness at bay,
I will wear your embrace like a vest. And my sword is heavily decorated,
One fine jewel for each one of my friends,
And when I swing it makes a swishing sound
To bring my foes unto their ends. Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness away,
I will wear your love upon my chest,
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness at bay,
I will wear your embrace like a vest. Perhaps I fall incorrectly,
Perhaps some blood gets in my eyes,
Where once you had protected me,
Where you touched, now you will slice
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness away,
I will wear your love upon my chest,
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness at bay
I will wear your embrace like a vest. I will take you on the battlefield,
I will caress you like my love,
And when the battle's gone I'll leave you, friend
Upon a shelf, upon a wall. Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness away,
I will wear your love upon my chest,
Friendship is my sword, it keeps the loneliness at bay,
I will wear your embrace, I will wear your embrace,
I will wear your embrace like a vest.
