

Mic Club Intro

Canibus

Ha ha ha ha
Enter the Micclub this is where it all starts
Emcees defend they honor at all costs
Cycle of winners, this aint for beginners
I'm the sinner; state your name rank and business
When I pass you the mic, you better burn it
Don't be squirmish, you want respect, you gotta earn it
This is where we define purpose, how much heart lies beneath the surface
What's hidden behind the curtain?
Besides tight verses, nothing in life is certain
If you live as long as your words, you make life worth it
Writing rhymes gives me a buzz, I do this for the love
Welcome to the M I C Club.....
