

Lose Myself

Marsha Ambrosius

i can love you better
lose myself in love .. i used to do it for the love a long time ago and all i ever wanted was love i used to love without fear a long time ago
and all i ever wanted was love then somebody came around and tried to hurt me try to make me feel like i was unworthy took a pure love and tried to make it dirty truth was they never did deserve me no! i had to lose myself so i could love you better i had to lose myself, had to lose myself so i could love you better, lose myself in love and that's just the way it is?
couldn't tell me i was in love when i needed it when, all i ever wanted was love. should a told me i was worth receiving it but all i ever wanted was love there's something awkward about the selflessness it takes to give love and the good that it makes you! true love can never really forsake you but it took a little while just for me to see!
make it better
had to lose myself, had to lose myself so i could love you better
and that's just the way it is?
i had a paralyzing fear of facing failure and i couldn't love you perfectly with that fear in my head so i perilously had to face the danger so i could come back and love you whole instead all of your soul i said!
so i could make it better i had to lose myself had to lose myself

had to lose myself, had to lose myself so i could
and so it goes that i never meant to hurt you couldn't stay but i never meant to desert you whole lot a things i just had to work through time to heal and restore my self-worth too confrontation of my fears and anxiety cried a whole lot of years i suffered quietly and though it may have taken years i can finally tell you that you were always on my mind!
love you better baby better baby
so i could love you better baby had to lose myself had to lose myself so I could love you better baby had to lose myself in love yeah, so I can love you better baby lose myself in love
and that's just the way it is!
takes strength to absorb all the abuse i did great love to absorb all the misuse i did hey baby it's not an excuse i give.
and i'd do it all again because for you i live
hey baby it's not an excuse i give.
had to lose myself so i could love you better baby had to lose myself in love, so I could love you better baby had to lose myself in love again so I could love you better baby baby
had to lose myself in love again
so i could love you better baby baby baby i can love you better baby, i could love you better , i could love you better I can love you better I could love you better I could love you better It sure feels right that's just the way it is
