Slow Motion

Nickelback

Well, I start, just broke of a line in your tasteless joke
What's up with that hutch you've stolen
Don't worry cause it's not broken, it's just swollen
Could anticipate how you're feeling from day to dayWell, about you now, thats your needing Don't worry cause they're laughing, and you're bleedingWell, I'm drowning your ocean
It's much cooler in slow motionDon't care where you've went
When its obvious that you bore
I'm not worried cause its five minutes to your gloryWell, I'm drowning your ocean
It's much cooler in slow motionLeave it up to me and I will
Be the one here to see that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here, believes you're a liarWell, I start just broke of a line in your tasteless joke
Right after you've a punched a hole in
Don't worry cause it's not broken, it's just swollen
Could anticipate how you're feeling from day to daySince it's obvious that you bore me
I, I'm not worried cause it's five minutes to your gloryLeave it up to me and I will
Be the one here to see that you stand still
Everyone sees your eyes getting wider
Everyone here believes you're a liar, you're a liar
