

Perkele (The God of Fire)

Amorphis

I, I woke up, the God of fire woke me up
At the edge of burning ground
I'm, I'm damned to put out the fire
My hand is a trap for that fireIt won't surprise me in my dream
My dream wakes me up instantly
Without a word my hand is a trap
Trap for that fireI, I drown it with water
I kill it on the spot
It won't have time to run far
It won't get away from me
