This House

Glenn Hughes

I'll keep the present that you bring
You know it's part of everything
Your perfume lingers in the airThere is nothing left to do
You know it's me, I know it's youYou are the ghost in every room
You always take away the gloom
You are no ordinary friendThere is nothing left to do
You know it's me, I know it's youI'll sacrifice myself
Now don't you go awayThis house
Has never known the sadness
And it's,
This house
It doesn't hold a secret
Anymore
It was built on loveI'll bring a rose and juniper
We'll float away across the earth
High on a cloud we live as oneThere is nothing left to do
You know it's me, I know it's youThis house
Has never known the sadness
And it's,
This house
It doesn't hold a secret
Anymore
It was built on loveI'm wondering why
I wanna see your face
Cuz I can't take it anymoreWe're lost in a time
And it's so hard to fake it
Will you open up the door?
This house
Has never known the sadness
And it's,
This houseThis house
Has never known the sadness
And it's,
This house
It doesn't hold a secretAnd it's,
This house
It doesn't hold a secret
Anymore
It was built on love
