Moonspell

To Live is to collaborateAll the spineless people won't capitulate
Will walk again
Will evacuate
And stimulateAnd they will wait for the Man
With that didicolous fairy hand
To work on their lives
And to re-adjust their faithAll the spineless people
Will walk again
Will agitate
And ejaculateA great act of Sex will be lived here
We will call it The Great and Only Shame
We will make love to ourselves
And tomorrow we will make the sameAll the Insect actors
Want to participate
Will perform again
Will dissociate
And fabricateAnd they will wait for the Dictator
With that apocalyptic Lizard Head
To review their births
And invert their painsAll the Insect actors
(really) want to participate
Will perform again
Will imitate
And simulateAn emergency will be staged
We will call it The Great Accident
We will act as someone else
The very ones we learnt to hate
