

Walking Alone

Murphy's Law

Time has passed and things ain't Right
My girl and I broke up last night
She spend some time with another guy
Who better find a really good place to hide[Chorus:]
So I walked out the door, can't take no more Crashed in the corner on poss floor we talked mad shit about what she said
Another little girl just messed up my head ... so I'm Walking alone ... I'm just
Walking alone
Walking alone ... I'm just Walking aloneAnother step I take until My burning heart has had it's fill
The people on the street they step aside
They See the trouble written in my eyes
[Chorus]
[Chorus]
