

Deep Down I'm American Werewolf

Crywank

Stacked up to my height turn and see you cry.
Crumpled down to my size broken by your fathers vice.
Those years you don't remember
I spent crumpling leather.
In the seat next to where you drive where you gave your best advice. Your favourite song line hurts I didn't understand it at first but an empty seat on your ride home reminds me how often you are alone
