

Determination

Sete Star Sept

Girl, the last time I saw you
You were crying my name
When I put you on the spot

Will you still feel the same? Show me some determination

 Show me the measure of your dedication

 I need to see just a reflection of your inspiration

 Don't you break down on me I'm looking for someone

 Someone strong enough to believe in

 Everybody's looking for someone

 Strong enough to stand on his feet

And never break down I'll put my life on the line and believe what you say

I'll go out on a limb if you meet me halfway Show me some determination

 Show me the measure of your dedication

 I need to see just a reflection of your inspiration

 Don't you break down on me I'm looking for someone

 To show me what they mean by devotion

 Everybody's looking for someone

 Prepared to put aside his emotion

And never break down You're a new wave raver and you like to talk tough

But can you still cut the mustard when the going gets rough Show me some determination

 Show me the measure of your dedication

 I need to see just a reflection of your inspiration

 Don't you break down on me I need an indication of your determination

 I need a demonstration of your determination

 I need an indication of your determination

 I need a demonstration of your determination Show me some determination

 Show me the measure of your dedication

 I need to see just a reflection of your inspiration

 Don't you break down on me Three days in the rain and I ain't had no sleep

 But I won't break down now, I got a promise to keep

Showing my determination 'cause that's the way I am Show me some determination

 Show me the measure of your dedication

 I need to see just a reflection of your inspiration

 Don't you break down on me
