

High Voltage

Eagles of Death Metal

it opens right on time she's just a hollywood lie yeah we're gettin freaky in the shadows of the night time she loves rock n roll yeah the girls high voltage she'll have you suckin on your finger oh thats sassy from the la brea to cahuenga yeah we're gettin sneaky with the shadows of the lime light she's high voltage she loves rock n roll
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll the girls high voltage she's right on time
she's always on time
she's always on time
she's always on time
she's always on time
she's like a sweet transister you knows i missed her you wanna hit it, dont lie you want it comin from the east side i wanna be the showpiece of the nasty boy collection
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll she's high voltage she's a sweet transister
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll she's high voltage she's like a sweet transister you know i kissed her she's always right on time yeah whoa she's just a hollywood lie yeah whoa yeah we're gettin freaky in the shadows of the lime light you know i kissed her the girl's high voltage
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll
she's high voltage she loves rock n roll she's high voltage she loves it!
