

Lean on Me

Crystal Lewis

There's a man standing on the corner with no home
He has no food and his blue skies are gone
Can't you hear him crying out? And there's a girl searching for a father
And a friend praying that the storm someday will end
But instead of walking away, open up your heart and say I am here, you don't have to worry, I can see your tears
I'll be there in a hurry when you call
Friends are there to catch you when you fall
Here's my shoulder you can lean on me There is a child sick and begging to be free
But there is no cure for his disease
He looks up at his mother as she folds his hand
Praying that someday the sun will shine again and the pain will end I am here, you don't have to worry, I can see your tears
I'll be there in a hurry when you call
Friends are there to catch you when you fall
Here's my shoulder you can lean on me How can I love Jesus when I've never seen His face?
Yet I see you dying and I turn and walk away
So hold my hand, let me take you to a friend of mine
He's waiting just to ease your troubled mind
Yet instead of walking away open up your heart and say I am here, you don't have to worry, I can see your tears
I'll be there in a hurry when you call
Friends are there to catch you when you fall
Here's my shoulder you can lean on me
