

Will Calls (Diplo Remix)

Grizzly Bear

Under your hard lens
Making too few ends
Meet a middle ground I know, it's defense
Oily hands, slippery slope
Pointed fangs without scope
Understand me
I know
No mistaken time goes
Undeserved without, everything, everyone you know
Even if Will calls
Doesn't mean fall out
We once had a thing I know, vanished
All of my rights lingering
It isn't a place that I've been
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna know the lies Shouldn't ever be what it was alright
I'll choose to believe what's right
Even if in the end I'm blind
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna know the lies
Couldn't ever be what it was, alright?
Even if we send
Everything from both ends
So little left to, say, do, it depends
If we are past what we keep
All that was promised that was sheathed
No mention of our,
Unchecked accord
I leave this, without regret, or hearsay
Even though I'll move on Doesn't mean this goes strong
Can't believe it to be undone, finished
Say what you want me to believe
Please show me something I can see
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna know the lies Wouldn't ever be what it was
alright
I'll choose to believe what's right
Even if if in the end I'm blind
I don't wanna be, I don't wanna know the lies
Couldn't ever be what it was, alright
I'll choose to believe what's right
Even if in the end I'm blind

Songwriters

CHRISTOPHER BEAR, CHRISTOPHER M TAYLOR, DANIEL RAPHAEL ROSSEN, ED DROSTE, THOMAS WESLEY PENTZ
Published by

Lyrics © Peermusic Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>