

Awe

Zhaga

Leaning forward believe in forcing the faith an emptiness you've kept fed the fragile truth to be claimed hypocrisies all around (us) their rules and plans are opposed imposing cult of the cruel

And today, we pray in awe Today, we pray for more Today, we pray for love
Today, we pray for war

Heard them all so many lies had been said To sheep that doesn't know better Their ignorance and its bliss, It's what they embrace

And today, we stand in awe Today, obey their god
Today, we crave his love
Today, we go to war
