

Harrisburg (live)

Josh Ritter

Romero got married on the fifth of July
In our Lady of Immaculate Dawn
Could have got married in the revival man's tent
But there ain't no reviving what's gone
Slipped like a shadow from the family he made
In a little white house by the woods
Dropped the kids at the mission, with a rose for the virgin
She knew he was gone for good It's a long way to Heaven, it's closer to Harrisburg
And that's still a long way from the place where we are
And if evil exists its a pair of train tracks
And the devil is a railroad car Could have stayed somewhere but the train tracks kept going
And it seems like they always left soon and the wolves that he ran with they moaned low and painful sang sad misery's to the moon Rose at the altar withered and wilted Romero sank into a dream
He didn't make Heaven, he didn't make Harrisburg
He died in a hole in between
Some say that man is the root of all evil
Others say God's a drunkard for pain
Me I believe that the Garden of Eden
Was burned to make way for a train

Songwriters

RITTER, JOSH /Published by

Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, DUCHAMP, INC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>