Mirage

Edge Of Haze

Somehow
I always knew I wouldnt be myself
I know I let you down
But someone inside me felt so scaredAnd I saw your pain and all the marks they left along your face
They said its part of the game
So on your nightmares stayed the sameThrough all the times they made you fear
I pretended it was not my deal
I wanna say Im sorry
I didnt help you outSometimes it all seems hopeless
But if we stand against it the tears have chance to dry
And no, its never easy
But the bruises fade away, dont they?
