

Yeah It Is

Chris Janson

Is that an Old Miss Rebel tat
Sittin' right there on her lower back?
Yeah it is
Is that a wedding band turned upside down
'Cause she don't wanna show it 'round?
Yeah it is
Is that a picture of her kids
On the key ring of her Benz?
Yeah it is
Is that a woman sittin' on a stool
Cryin' over some damn fool?
Yeah it is Oh but it ain't just what you thought it was
The single gal tryna catch a buzz
It's the only day of the week she gets alone
It's just what you think it is
Lonely mom of three great kids
She was left to raise 'em on her own
Is that an empty barstool sittin' there beside her?
Yeah it is I said is that a Maker's Mark you're drinkin'
To forget the things you're thinkin'?
She said, yeah it is
I said when a heart like yours is broken
Are you sure the whiskey's workin'?
She said, yeah it is
Is there a chance if I keep buyin'
I can stop them pretty eyes from cryin'?
She said, yeah there is
I said well honey that's just what I'm gonna do
As long as that's ok with you
She said, yeah it is Oh but it ain't just what you thought it was
The single gal tryna catch a buzz
It's the only day of the week she gets alone
It's just what you think it is
A lonely mom of three great kids
She was left to raise 'em on her own
And it's a good idea I stay right here beside her
Yeah it is
Oh but it ain't just what you thought it was
A single gal trying to catch a buzz

It's the only day of the week she gets alone
It's a real good thing I pulled up here beside her
Yeah it is
