

Blue Christmas

Melissa Etheridge

I'll have a blue Christmas without you
I'll be so blue thinking about you
Decorations of red on a green Christmas tree
Won't be the same dear if you're not here with me And when those blue snowflakes start falling
That's when those blue, those blue memories start calling, yeah
Oh, you'll be doing alright with your pretty, pretty Christmas in white
But I'm, I'm gonna have a blue, a blue, blue, blue, blue Christmas
Hey yeah! Oh, you will be doing alright, doing alright in your Christmas of white
But I'll, I'll have a blue, a blue Christmas
