For You

Raul Malo

Cry tears in the dark, where no one can see you
Eyes, fairytale lies, they're all around you
I call out your name
and I, I wait in vain for youI wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no otherBe fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mineSigh, fairytale lies, they're all around you
I call out your name
and I, I wait in vain for youI wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no otherBe fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mineBe fair, be wise
Leave all your heartaches behind
Someplace, sometime if stardust should fall, you'll be mineI wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no otherI wanna be your sunrise
I wanna be your blue eyes
I wanna be the white lies that you can tell another
I wanna be your story
I wanna be your glory
The secret that you're keeping that you can tell no other
