VERSE 1
I want you to know I thought Id see you tonight
But youre too damn stubborn to see wrong and right
Where did you go, youve been here all of my life
I guess it got too hot and you just couldnt handle the fire
CHORUS
But youre not the first you know, and you wont be the last
Theres a long list of has beens, waitin down at the pass
When you figure it out, that Im not white trash
They wont let you on the train that Im on, cause its movin too fast
VERSE 2
Her name was Amy, it was 1992
I promised her the world and she promised me the moon
But she couldnt take it, my life and the road
She listened to the voices, packed her bags and headed back home
CHORUS
Shes not the first you know and she wont be the last
Theres a long list of has beens, waitin down at the pass
But when she figures it out, that Im not white trash
They wont let her on the train that Im on cause its movin too fast
VERSE 3
So take a deep breath, and free your mind
Light all you r candles and jump to the fire
You cant see me for the smoke, its heaven and its hell
But I wont be surprised or hurt, if you decide to bail
CHORUS
But youre not the first you know, and you wont be the last
Theres a long list of has beens waitin down at the pass
And when you figure it out, that Im not white trash
They wont let you on the train that Im on, cause its movin too fast
