What's this
That I see
Have you turned yourself from thee
You are not
What you portray
Any longer.Well
There it is
No more comfort
Will comfort me
You are not
What you appear
Anymore.Let it not subside
That beacon falls from your eyes
There's nothing left but changeWell
Quietly
My eyes quality
"sight to see"
You are not
What you appear any longer.Let it not subside
That beacon fallen from your eyes
There's nothing left but changeWhat was, what will be
Have you turned yourself from me
You are not
What you appear to be
Any longer.LongerLook at you
You wouldn't do this to... meWell
Quietly
My eyes ???
"sight to see"
You are not
What you appear
Any longer.Longer, ohhhhhhhIf, by chance, you come for me
I won't slip away
If, by chance, you come for me
I won't slip away
From youMe...
You wouldn't do this to... me.
