

Damaged

Primal Scream

Sweet summer days
When I was feeling so fine
Just you and me, girl
Was a beautiful time
Oh yeah, said, "I felt so happy"
My my my I was through with doubt and pain
All the love I felt hadn't been in vain
Got damaged
I got damaged
I got damaged
I lost myself in you I'd wake up beside you
You'd hold me in your arms
Nothing and nobody's gonna
Do me any harm
Oh yeah, said, "I felt so happy"
My my my And the way I felt inside
Made me feel so glad to be alive
Got damaged
I got damaged
I got damaged
I lost myself in you I'd never felt so happy
I'd never felt so happy
I'd never felt so happy
I'll never feel that way again
No, no, no, no, no My my my People can be precious
But they ain't for keeping
I got too possessive
But souls ain't for stealing You were my addiction
I got strung out and crazy
Hit me like a fever
When you left me, baby Stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone, stone, stone in love with you
I was stone
