Fool Me

Lynn Anderson

Ain't it kinda funny they Say a fool never learns
Play with fire and it always burns
Don't it kinda get you down you
Treat me worse than before
But I keep comin' back for more'Causet you're a deceiver and I'm a believer
It's just a game I know but I can't seem to let goSo fool me fool me one more time
You can fake just for old time's sake
Look in my eyes tell me those lies
And just fool me fool me one more timeDon't it make you wonder
Why I keep playing make believe
Do you really think I'm that naive
Don't it make you sad I'm actin'
Like I got it made even though
It's just a masquerade'Cause you're a deceiver and I'm a believer
It's just a game I know but I can't seem to let goSo fool me fool me one more time, fool me fool me one more time
Come on fool me one more time, fool me one more time
Honey fool me one more time, fool me one more time
