The Circle

Ocean Colour Scene

AahSaturday
Afternoon, the sunshine
Pours like wine
Through your windowAnd I know
Golden June can turn
An empty gray
Against your windowAnd I feel like
I'm on the outside
Of the circleIf I walk
(If I walk, if I walk)
By the trees
I'll catch the falling leaves
If the wind blowsBut I know
(But I know, but I know)
All this means
Is whiling on the hours
Watching side showsAnd I feel like
I'm on the outside
Of the circleWill I turn my coat to the rain
I don't know
But I'm goin'
Somewhere I can
Warm my bonesFare you well
(Fare you, fare you well)
Carry me away
And sing for those
I know upon their birthdaysI won't feel like
I'm on the outside
I won't feel like
I'm on the outsideI won't feel like
I'm on the outside
Of the circle
