Video Girl

Grits

You a video girl (You must be kidding me girl)

You a video girl

(You must be kidding me girl)

Video girl create your own world

The only one in existence is you

No one's resistant to you

You and only you and you

Seem like a dream on the screen

Tantalize and titillate

Video girl of the worldShe was slightly dressed

Out to impress, ready to party

Gettin casted for tha club scenes dyin to shake her body

To get on tha set

She compromised for tha dollas

Dancin freaky with tha rappers obsessed with poppin collers

Bought some hair and nails

Found some dudes that rap

While shes rockin tha tiny shorts and tha shirt from baby gap

Misinformed adolescent

She was teenage old

Never told of her inner goal

When she was wrongfully clothed

Just a jewel that got appraised by unqualified guys

They lied, shotload, don't kno her worth in God's eyes

Fellas after tha flesh, they ain't goin' see wat I'm gettin

'Cause they measure every girl by these video womenI'm sick of all they constant bouncin then they say

We disrespectful 'cause we crave em with our instant

Pouncin the money drive em to mishaps and under

They thongs lie decay and collapse no morals perhaps

The scenery's pretty the suns shining it's nice out

A pretty girl freakin on a pimp who'd knock her lights outGangsta with gold fronts and the girl he's advancin on

Would rather run him over with the truck she's dancing on

And he'd be hurt up pretty badly I must say word up

It aint over bone is third up

Don't debate it I know they hate being affiliated

To this world they created with facades that leave you devastated The glamorous life price for your souls rest

Simple mentality in a world complex

Star studded reality 5 minutes or less

Broken dreams and ambitions lost with respect

She was an innocent queen with rubber bands and berets

Young diva runnin things commanding every step

Then the pace picked up and she learned to be fast

Short skirt tight clothes good spirit turned bad

Hollywood caught a glimpse of your beauty untamed

At the cost you played whatever price you paid

Through away your identity even changed your name

In your world of fame child you need to be shamed

In tha world of fame
