Private Lives (2008 Remastered Version)

Ultravox

All the boys are wearing blue tonight
We'll thrive, we'll dive, how can you lose?
All the strangers walk like you tonight
So tall, we fall for every moveWe'll laugh and talk, don't stop for breath
And these are private lives
We dance 'til dawn, as they beat the drums
For all our private livesClose your eyes and use the melody
Who cares, who stares under the light?
See the shadow tailing me again
It shows, it glows, and it grabbed so bright
