Water ran

Lilly Wood & The Prick

Water ran
Through your door and mine
I know
It's too late to say I would have liked to know you
I know
So I stare at the walls of my green green kitchen
I stare at the doors of my empty mind

Water ran
Through your door and mine
I know
It's too early to say I would have liked to love you
I know
So I stare at the walls of my green green kitchen
I stare at the doors of my empty mind

Don't you like the way we made love that day
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay

Water ran
Through your door and mine
I know
It's too late to say I would have liked to know you

I know
So I stare at the walls of my green green kitchen
I stare at the doors of my empty mind

Don't you like the way we made love that day
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay
Don't you like the way it was drugs that made me stay
