Avoiding The Angel

Dave Navarro

I never wanted you to live here
I only asked if you would stay
I never minded that you slept here
I thought that you would go awayI never minded talking to you
Can I only turn you off?
I can't remember talking to youDriving by the place with the books
It's a nice day for a parade
Seven times near the place with the booksI never really even loved you
I'm just really insecure
I never really even cared
Never tasted that pureI don't think, I ever liked you
I just had some time
(Had some time)
I don't think I'd be that sorryDriving by the place with the books
It's a nice day for a parade
Seven times near the place with the booksLiving with you is a shade of gray
We never had anything to say anyway
Living with you is a shade of gray, everydayYou never listened to me
And you never had the time
I thought that I knew you angel
You make me want to dieYou never listened to me
And you never had the time
We never loved each other
And I'm always making you cry
