

Sweet Misery

Amel Larrieux

 Hmm, hmm, hmm
 Hmm, hmm, hmm
 Hmm, hmm, hmm I wish I didn't feel it
 I know it just ain't right
 But it seems to pop up in my head
 Morning, noon and night I just can't release it
 The memory of you
 Mama never told me
Love would leave me so damn blue And I got misery
 'Cause I know loving you's a sin
 And I'll be on my knees
Praying that I don't give in Now baby you and me
 Never ever could have been
 Till I got misery
Because I'll love you till the end You said that you loved me
 But I'm your only one
 But what you call monogamy
Is lying to everyone Well I gave you your freedom
 But that's not the end of that
 'Cause you reached in and stole my heart
 And now I want it back And I got misery
 'Cause I know loving you's a sin
 You got me on my knees
Praying that, that I don't give in Baby you and me
 Never ever could have been
 So I got misery
Because I'll love you till the end I'm so blue, can't let go of you
 I'm so blue, can't stop loving you
 I'm so blue, can't let go of you
 I'm so blue You give me sweet misery
 'Cause I know loving you's a sin
 You got me on my knees
Praying that I don't give in Baby you and me
 Never ever, ever could have been
 So I got misery, yeah
I'll love you till the end Oh I know loving you is a sin
 You got me, you got me on my knees
 Praying that I don't give in
 And baby you and me

Never ever could have been
So I got misery
Oh I got it bad, I got it bad
I got it so darn bad, so darn badBaby I'm praying, I'm praying that I don't give in, baby for you
You and me, we never ever could have been
So I got misery 'cause I'll love you till the end
Oh baby, oh baby, oh baby, ooh wee babyOh, ay, ay, ay, baby
Sweet misery, sweet misery, sweet misery
I got some sweet, sweet misery, misery
Misery, misery, sweet misery
