Fall Apart

Earshot

So you finally found a way to lessen all your pain
What you'd give to feel again for even just the day
And as you search to find the words for someone to relate
You realize all your faults were never their mistakesAnd everything starts to fall apart
Covered in ink to hide these scars
And everything ends the way it starts
I just wanna feel like I belongCould this be the one last time that brings about the change
The moments in your life when you know it has to change
Another waste of time, another dream in flames
And once you feel the fire you'll never be the sameAnd everything starts to fall apart
Covered in ink to hide these scars
And everything ends the way it starts
I just wanna feel like I belong
I belong, I belong, I belongOoo, all my life, I've done nothing but hide from myself
Ooo, all my life, I've done nothing but lie to myself
Over and over againAnd everything starts to fall apart
Covered in ink to hide these scars
And everything ends the way it starts
I just wanna feel like I belong
I belong, I belong, I belong, I belong
