Where It Hurts

Tamar Braxton

What you gotta understand is, i'm still here
It could've been my name, and I want it
So, let's be clear
Yeah I know that she hurt you
None of those circumstances, you got a lot of things to work through
You don't want to take no chances, chancesWhat you gotta understand is, even with all that
I'm still hereWill you just show me where it hurts
I can kiss away the pain
I can make it get again if you let me
Will you just show me where it hurts
I'll make it alright if you want me to
All you gotta do is show me where it hurts
Show me where it hurts babyI know it's hard to give in but just try
Cause you know that you unjust me, all the lies
Yeah I know that she hurt you
None of those circumstances are never be the one who hurt you
Don't miss out on this chance, chanceLet yourself go, cause i'm still hereWill you just show me where it hurts
I can kiss away the pain
I can make it get again if you let me
Will you just show me where it hurts
I'll make it alright if you want me to
All you gotta do is show me where it hurts
Show me where it hurts babyShow me where it hurts babyI know you see that I'm the one you need
And it's just not that I compare her to me
She cannot compete
We're better together, know why, you had my heart
It's time to show it babyShow me where it hurts
I can kiss away the pain
I can make it get again if you let me
Just show me where it hurts
And I'll make it alright if you want me to
All you gotta do is show me where it hurts
Show me where it hurts babyJust show me where it hurts
