

Lost At Home

Joshua Radin

You're tryin' to figure out
How to sleep
At night And this city is casting doubt
Which one of me
Is right? Who are you
When you're home? Without a suitcase
Nowhere to roam
If you speak
Do they hear?
And if you laugh
Do they draw near?
And if you cry
Does it show
When you're lost at home The bed's too still
Where you lay
Your head You open up your eyes
As the sun
Begins to set Who are you
When you're home? Without a suitcase
Nowhere to roam
If you speak
Do they hear?
And if you laugh
Do they draw near?
And if you cry
Does it show When you're lost at home
