Love is what we are made of
Love is why we are here
Love is what we were conceived of
Love is how we'll disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love is here, love is here, love is here Love is all around us
Love is everywhere
Love is what makes us feel alive
Love protects us from our fear
No more fear, no more fear, no more fear
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love is here, love is here, love is here Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love is here, love is here Love is here, love is here
Love is here, love is here
Love is here Love is in the autumn
Love is in your soul
Love is in your sad little self
Love is how we will all heal
Will all heal, will all heal, will all heal
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love, love, love, love, love is here
Love is here, love is here, love is here
