Pinkly Smooth

Today I sold my brother
Into hell, forevermore
Choice there was no other
I'm sad to say, it's not the last time
I look into your body
Fill you up with enemies
It's wave, oh, for the next life
I don't know if I alone want youShe says what about my story time
Afraid, a little side of it is under spy
Some will eventually go out and die
I think he really wants to die
I don't really want to die
I think he really swallowedRaise it up to the lord,
If I die tomorrow, try to pull on me
Come to me with nothing
Watch you bleed, forevermoreSoon he runs into his time, holding on Choices on my own tongue
I'm strong enough, such I can deem, of
There is so long here
It's not enough for the last timeI look into your body,
Fill you up with enemies,
It's wave, oh, for the next life
I don't know if I alone want youYeahSick for ya
So, sick for ya
Sick for ya
So, sick for yaSaket has some better things to occupy my time
I went for the study of the evil souls and I wish that they replied
Well, I sat down on your stone and I talked with you for a while
And did you think that it was worth itIt's burnin' on its' head
And I won't believe this even happened here
I won't rest until you bloody
Sanest, darn this, I can't get you out of sightIt's your fucking fault
Sick for ya, sign of amaze
Sick for ya, you'll be numbing for days
For the way, these motherfuckers never failSick for ya
So, sick for ya
