Bellissima

Bob Wallis & His Storeyville Jazzmen

BELLISSIMA
by Milton Subotsky
l hear chance knowing the fan down in Italy
You can hear it from Venice to Napoli
Itâ€™s goodbye to the all play hen and symphony
When the jazz band starts to play.

How they cheer when they hear it fortissimo
How they dance and romance when pianissimo
Every boy gets his girl hell a little kiss him oh
Oh bellissimo, yeah bellissimo.

Signora, signore, that sound the door
When the band leaves the stand they all shout and call
Want you come back at me, cheer and please me more Yeah bellissimo, oh bellissimo.

Each one been on engine on for miles around
Whereâ€™s the girl round'n'round to that happy sound
When the wheat fill at beat how that possess pound
Oh bellissimo, yeah bellissimo.

How they cheer when they hear it fortissimo
How they dance and romance when pianissimo
Every girl gets her boy hell a little kiss him oh
Oh bellissimo, yeah bellissimo.
