Beat Angels

Rickie Lee Jones

Beggin' down these sun beaten streets
I can't make for no connection
Locals here don't speak no English
Where is my woman, no one knowsIt seems some girls just have to leave in the night
When you're fast asleep
But I don't worry, I move in the dark
There were lights, there were border lightsI thought I heard a drum in the distance play
I saw the light, I crossed my heart and beat angels were thereI awoke in some hotel room
Could hardly remember my name
They were only sixteen years old
I was so cold, I was so ashamedIf sometime I just have to leave
In the night, when you're fast asleep
Turn up your radio and I move in the dark
There will be lights, there are border lightsThought I heard a drum in the distance play
I saw the lights
Crossed my heart and beat angels were thereYou might wonder where one goes wrong
It was somewhere in a foreign rain that sent him out to stone
Every lamplight in town
Man don't know what he's got it his veinsUntil beat angels come, take him away
Play on beat angels
