

Paid for Loving

Love Jones

I get paid for loving
Oh yes girl, I'm loving all the time
I get paid for loving because your love is mine
Because you love is mine, because your love is mine
I get paid for loving
Not with nickels and dimes
I get paid for loving because your love is mine
Because your love is mine
Because your love is mine
Your kisses make me richer
Richer all the time
Your loving is so much sweeter
Like berries from the vine
Paid for loving every day
Paid for loving every mother freaking (sic) day
