

Dreamscape Lucidity

Pagan's Mind

Lord, give me strength to carry on in time
I've seen me born in Luna's light
The healing light to magic crystal skies Gazing to mystic starlit sky dimensional flight
Princess Divine guide me through the night
With power within to magic crystal skies Like a lucid dream alive, a mystery
Sworn the princess to set free this mystery I am the warrior of my dreams
Warrior in dream-space Who are you to walk across the graves at this late hour?
I am only a traveler in these dreams
We protect these dimensions with our eternal souls
I was sent by Aurora, enter the gate and move on Sword in mind I bear
Princess in flames
Dream-scape warrior
Endless my quest Like a lucid dream alive a mystery
Sworn the princess to set free this mystery
Sworn to set you free this mystery
I hold the key From your day of birth until your final day
You were as determined as a warrior of these dimensions
Now you've solved the riddle the palace lies before you Waiting for the break of dawn
Crying for the time we all shall fight back
Waiting for the break of dawn
Crying for the time when we shall all fight back
