

Wine Me Up (Re-Recorded / Remastered)

Faron Young

Hey I'm the center of attention in thi barroom yeah

I've got the biggest heartache of the year

And each night those swnging doors reach out for me and draw me in

They know each night that I'll come back to wine me up againWine me up turn me on and watch me cry for you yeah

Lately drinking warm red wine is all I want to do

I never know how tight I'll wine up till I walk in

And I don't care I'll be back to wine me up again yeahI'd like to thank them folks that raised the grapes way out in California

And I'm hoping this year will be their biggest year

Yeah scarlet water's all that's left to keep me hanging on

And that's why I'll try to wine me up each day and night next yearWine me up turn me on and watch me cry for you yeah

Lately drinking warm red wine is all I want to do

I never know how tight I'll wine me up till I walk in

And I don't care I'll be back to wine me up again yeah
