The Blame

Agnostic Front

Here we go
[Incomprehensible] fucking you [Incomprehensible]
Let's set it off [Incomprehensible]
1, 2, 3, goWhat you gonna do when they all turn on you?
Is it worth for us to live their way?
It's their mistake and we're to blameAre we to live by the rules and be told what to do?
We're not part of their society, fuck their authority
We're youth of today and nothing can stand in our way
Nothing, nothing, nothingWe are young and strong
With our new hopes, we can't go wrong
We'll live without conformity
We've got our dreams, fuck their authorityCan't you look around you and see the world today?
They are full of fucking hypocrites who lie to get their way
Their fucking, their fucking, their fucking wayWhat you gonna do when they all turn on you?
Is it worth for us to live their way?
It's their mistake and we're to blameIt's time for us to try to live our lives
To keep our dreams alive, to make them all realize
That we gotta fight till we dieWe've taken too many excuses
And we know we're right
The anger has grown inside us
And we're out for blood tonight
